You should send know so they can at least see the questions at the end and request their feedback in prep for the meeting with Grant.

No, not yet. I revised it slightly and added John's questions at the end. I think the questions will help focus the conversation with Grant Cope.

Chip will attend the weekly meeting with LCARD and Trust. We plan to update the WP with information from both meetings tomorrow and send out as a final working draft.

Should I send it to them now or wait for the updates?

Hi John,

Here is a outline of the White Paper that incorporates Chip and my thoughts as well as the questions you provided to Chip.

The attachment starts to populate the Outline. We are wondering if you have any initial comments or should we carry on and send to you and Enrique after we work on it some more.

Dana
